

INNOVATION FESTIVAL

Mr Yashvardhan Soni (Associate Professor, IT Department) from Dronacharya College of Engineering, Gurgaon attended the Innovation Festival organized by National Science Centre (NSC) on 22nd January 2016. It's a platform for Innovators to show their creative work and interact with others of varieties of fields. It is interactive, with plenty of opportunities for hands on or do it yourself interaction for adults as well as kids.
